

March 28, 2008 (Friday), 7pm.

Maui Arts & Cultural Center, Castle Theater

*$25 ~ General Admission

*$20 ~ Seniors (65yrs & older) & Children (12 & under)

*plus $2 MACC facility fee at time of purchase

Tickets available at the MACC box office or by calling 242-show (7469), or online at mauiarts.org

Supported and Sponsored in part by the Maui Ryukyu Culture Group, Sand & Seaside Hotels, and Restaurant Ichiban in the Bally's Hotel, Las Vegas

IDENTITY

Loo

Choo

Nu

Kwa

琉球之子

CHILDREN OF LOOCHOO

As the winds of modernization sweep across our rapidly changing world, "Loochoo nu Kwa" is a performance inspired by the voices of Okinawan immigrants and their ancestors and is a call to all of Hawai'i's people to take pause to rekindle our histories and cultural identities. Through music and dances once reserved for royalty and rarely performed outside of Okinawa, this unique presentation weaves together images and sounds of both times long past and not so distant in their connections to who we are today.

Produced and presented by the Ukwanshin Kabudan, a not for profit performing arts troupe whose mission is to perpetuate and preserve all aspects of traditional LooChoo/Okinawan arts and culture. Visit us at <http://www.ukwanshin.org>

